kun manga was started by the manga artist Yukio Sawada. She is also the author of one of the best-selling manga of all time called KonoSuba-sensei no Neko wa Familiarou. In 2006, the manga ended and Super Mario-kun started. It is a wonderful story about adventures inside a world that looks like the Mushroom Kingdom but is connected to our world. The plot starts with a group of children who are living in our world but are trapped there since a terrible mushroom gave them a day in the Mario World. Mario wants to get back to the real world but the children have no idea how to get there. While they are searching for the exit, they meet a mysterious girl named Mario. When they are finished with their adventure in the Mushroom Kingdom, they return to their world but the door to the world has vanished. Mario explains to his girlfriend that he will continue the adventure there. But the day after, in the Mario world, he discovers that a giant enemy named Bowser has stolen the princess. He wants to bring back the princess to save his best friend Luigi, so he goes in the Mario world again to have a look for her. During the trip, he meets an old friend named Kamek. The story isn't exactly simple. It has its few twists and turns. Super Mario-kun makes you jump and makes you read every single page to try and figure out what is going on. The art is done by the manga artist Yukio Sawada. Many manga artists use a lot of time in designing the characters and backgrounds so that they will look realistic. But f678ea9f9e
